SCR PROMPTS

REVISING & EDITING

SHORT CONSTRUCTED RESPONSE RELEASED PROMPTS

	2026 STAAR/EOC (NEW)	2025 STAAR/EOC	2024 STAAR/EOC	2023 STAAR/EOC
3RD	Anita wants to combine the ideas in sentences 4 and 5. In the space provided, write a new sentence that combines these ideas in a clear and effective way. (4) She handed me a box. (5) It had a bow wrapped around it.	Sentence 6 repeats information. In the space provided, rewrite sentence 6 in a clear and effective way. (6) My teacher's name is Mrs. Sánchez, and Mrs. Sánchez is very nice.	Archie wants to combine the ideas in sentences 2 and 3. In the space provided, write a new sentence that combines these ideas in a clear and effective way. (2) This special dish is put together just like a pizza. (3) It tastes more like a taco.	Sentence 5 needs to be revised. In the space provided, rewrite sentence 5 in a clear and effective way. (5) They never restaurants go with us.
4TH	Mikayla wants to combine the ideas in sentences 20 and 21. In the space provided, write a new sentence that combines these ideas in a clear and effective way. (20) The truth is that they are both part of the same rock. (21) Rock seems to be a hard and lasting material, but natural forces can eat away at it over long periods of time.	Andy wants to combine the ideas in sentences 33 and 34. In the space provided, write a new sentence that combines these ideas in a clear and effective way. (33) About 20 minutes later, I finished the race. (34) My brother was by my side.	Words are repeated in sentence 30. In the space provided, rewrite sentence 30 in a clear and effective way. (30) Their presence led to more museums and to more galleries and to more festivals.	In the box provided, combine the ideas in sentences 17 and 18 to create one clear and effective sentence. (17) Tabichi began using his own salary to purchase food for his students. (18) He purchased supplies for his students too.
5TH	Jessica wants to combine the ideas in sentences 10 and 11. In the space provided, write a new sentence that combines these ideas in a clear and effective way. (10) The rule was that we all had to agree. (11) Then we could commit to going somewhere.	Sentence 2 needs to be revised. In the space provided, rewrite sentence 2 in a clear and effective way. (2) Others build sandcastles, collection of seashells, or swim in the waves.	Fumi wants to combine the ideas in sentences 17 and 18. In the space provided, write a complete sentence that combines these ideas in a clear and effective way. (17) They are certain areas on the sun's surface. (18) These areas are slightly cooler.	Sentence 32 needs to be revised. In the box provided, write this sentence in a clear and effective way. (32) She listened and then a hug for me.
6TH	Sentence 5 needs to be revised. In the space provided, rewrite sentence 5 in a clear and effective way. (5) The locations of most will never be known.	Sentence 9 needs to be revised. In the box provided, rewrite this sentence in a clear and effective way. (9) Each August her family brought a box of fresh Hawaiian pineapples when they returned home with them.	Judson wants to combine the ideas in sentences 17 and 18. In the space provided, write a new sentence that combines these ideas in a clear and effective way. (17) My cousin sent me a Petoskey stone from Lake Michigan. (18) He is from Chicago.	Simone wants to combine the ideas in sentences 24 and 25. In the box provided, write a sentence that combines these ideas in a clear and effective way. (24) The next day, I busily looked for things to include. (25) I noticed how much I actually had to be grateful for.
7TH	Eliana wants to combine the ideas in sentences 30 and 31. In the space provided, write a new sentence that combines these ideas in a clear and effective way. (30) They travel through space. (31) They send out radio signals that indicate their precise locations.	Macy wants to combine the ideas in sentences 10 and 11. In the space provided, write a new sentence that combines these ideas in a clear and effective way. (10) I once wore them to a music festival. (11) This involved lots of standing and dancing.	Sentence 23 needs to be revised. In the space provided, rewrite sentence 23 in a clear and effective way. (23) His second book shared the tales of those who had sought gold and other fabulous treasures, Coronado's Children.	In the box provided, combine the ideas in sentences 27 and 28 in a clear and effective way. (27) Everyone enjoys a tin cup of one of your delicious flavors. (28) It doesn't matter what the temperature is outside!
8TH	Julian wants to combine the ideas in sentences 28 and 29. In the space provided, write a new sentence that combines these ideas in a clear and effective way. (28) Uncle Jed then encouraged me to follow his lead with Duke. (29) He promised that I would soon have the dog literally eating out of my hand.	Sentence 18 needs to be revised. In the space provided, rewrite sentence 18 in a clear and effective way. (18) Each day, some new visitor would perch on a branch, and the new visitor would then fly away.	Sentence 24 needs to be revised. In the space provided, rewrite sentence 24 in a clear and effective way. (24) Susie Barstow loved to climb mountains, one of several female artists in the Hudson River School.	Gage wants to combine the ideas in sentences 5 and 6. In the space provided, write a new sentence that combines these ideas in a clear and effective way. (5) They bring together people of different backgrounds and remind them of shared goals. (6) This can foster a sense of pride and unity.
EI	Truman has included redundant information in sentence 8. In the space provided, rewrite sentence 8 in a clear and effective way. (8) She gushed over the picture, exclaiming that she planned to visit the Florida Keys someday and that Bahia Honda State Park would be at the very top of her list of places to go when she visited someday.	Luisa wants to combine the ideas in sentences 11 and 12. In the space provided, write a new sentence that combines these ideas in a clear and effective way. (11) They are also more likely to help those they have never met. (12) They are often the first to step up when volunteers are needed after a disaster.	Sentence 37 contains some redundancy. In the space provided, rewrite sentence 37 in a clear and effective way. (37) After an awkward moment of quiet silence, the two coworkers both began to laugh, and Sawyer realized she might have misjudged Carlos.	In the box provided, combine the ideas in sentences 6 and 7 to create one clear and effective sentence. (6) Then he quickly apologized. (7) He didn't want his mother to have the opportunity to scold him for a disrespectful attitude.
EII	Sentence 17 needs to be revised. In the space provided, rewrite sentence 17 in a clear and effective way. (17) His mom reminded him that nothing else seemed to be working out gently.	Sentence 8 needs to be revised. In the space provided, rewrite sentence 8 in a clear and effective way. (8) Germany was finally allowed to join the league in 1926, which was originally not offered membership due to its perceived aggression during World War I.	Sentence 19 needs to be revised. In the space provided, rewrite sentence 19 in a clear and effective way. (19) With a desperate tone, Amir explained that he didn't know how to locate the house without it, his phone that had been left at his grandfather's place.	Sentence 16 needs to be revised. In the box provided, rewrite this sentence in a clear and effective way. (16) Natalie and Owen turned around with their hands over their ears to block the shrill sound, who had been watching a movie.

© IN BETWEEN THE LATTES, LLC 2026